

March 2023

Happy St. Patrick's Day to you! We hope this footnote finds you happy & healthy! To help us communicate all the many details this time of year it is imperative that you read this entire footnote and make notes of dates in your calendar. Please also note that the emails we send are important as it is our double check to make sure information was relayed. Costume fees are due March 13th and are billed on your parent portal for each class your dancer is in. If the class as a whole isn't renting anything from the studio, there will be no fee. Please see to it these are paid in a timely manner so we can make sure appropriate adjustments or additional items can be purchased to costume your dancer. Also, we respectfully ask that you remember your commitment that you made to this recital- remember it is our "big game" of the year and it is important that each piece of the puzzle is present in classes and rehearsals. One of the many life lessons dance gives us is discipline- commitment to see something all the way through to the end. One way we act it out is in our personal schedules. Thank you for your understanding and placing importance on this commitment for your dancer, your child's classmates, and your instructor. Thank you!

Love, Ms. Sarah & Staff

* Please remember that when dropping off your dancer-if your dancer is not at the door please circle back around as we want to avoid the congestion in the parking lot!
* Dancers please remember to wait inside for your parent on the black bench or in the front foyer.

presented by 3rd Coast Training

Friday April 21st 5-6:30pm

$16/person

Now is the time! Join this husband/wife team for an empowering evening learning situational awareness, defensive tactics and self rescue techniques. This is not a traditional self-defense or martial arts class. It is a system designed to encompass complete self-reliance and protection, "One mind, any weapon." The evening will consist of power point information followed by hands on techniques.

Sign up at the front office.

Live out your Radio City Rockette dreams and attend this Master Class with Ms. Laura! Sign up at the front office!
